

SIGNALING THEORY

EUROPEAN SCIENCE DAYS STEYR/AUSTRIA JULY 11–15, 2010

Each day will comprise between 5 and 6 hours of lectures and seminars. Participants are encouraged to prepare posters for the poster sessions. Best posters will receive an award. Participants who have attended all lectures and seminars will receive a certificate.

Graduate students and post-docs in economics, political science, sociology, psychology, anthropology, behavioural ecology or related fields are invited to send their application to

European Science Days Steyr,
c/o Dr. Alexandra Suess, via email: a.suess@ewts.at <http://www.ewts.at>

Applications should include a letter of motivation, a CV, a brief statement describing research interests and achievements, and one letter of recommendation. We request the letter of recommendation to be sent by the recommenders directly to the above email address.

The Summer School itself is free of charge. Participants will be charged a contribution of Euro 400 for the cost of lodging, meals (breakfast, coffee breaks, lunch), and social events throughout the conference.
